

“DES REGULATOR”

An electronic controller device, German origin, is used in our forced circulation solar systems to control pump operation by checking boiler and collectors' temperature continuously. Despite the device overheating and antifreeze protection, it also tries to make boiler temperature steady by an internal command from microprocessor. The Device can also control pump speed in order to reach optimum temperature quickly.

CONTROL DEVICE.....

